

Bulk Products Development Corp Announces Expansion of the Lakeville Grain Elevator

April 1, 2008 (Livonia, NY) Bulk Products Development Corp. is in the process of a $2.4 million upgrade to the Lakeville Grain Elevator located in Livonia, NY. This upgrade will provide the operator and lessee of the facility, PACMA (Perdue Agricultural Commodities Marketing Association, Inc.), with substantial receiving, storage and drying capacity upgrades.

The Lakeville Grain Elevator was constructed in 1994 by Bulk Products Development Corp. The facility has undergone several expansions throughout its existence to meet the growing demands of the regional corn, soybean and wheat markets. The current expansion will be the largest to date. Bulk Products Development Corp owns over 70 contiguous acres of available light industrial property with rail access in Livonia, NY.

For further information contact:

Leslie Cole Jr.
President, Bulk Products Development Corp.
585 538 9500
lc@crconnect.com
www.crconnect.com/bulkproducts.htm